

VALENCIA CF EASTER CUP, SPAIN

APRIL 9 / 12,
2009

BACKGROUND

Valencia is one of the most beautiful and historical cities in Spain and a soccer hotbed, home to the 2005 Champions of the Spanish La Liga. The excellent Valencia Cup is held each Easter and attracts teams from all parts of Europe. Games are played on top quality grass and turf fields at Valencia CF Training Complex. All participants are covered by Injury Insurance.

2009 DATES

- * Thursday, April 9 - Arrival of teams. Registration.
- * Friday, April 10 - Valencia Cup Games commence.
- * Saturday, April 11 - Games continue. Sightseeing. Party.
- Visit to Valencia CF Stadium
- * Sunday, April 12 - Finals Day & Awards. Transfer.
- * Monday, April 13 - Departure of Teams (from Madrid).

AGE GROUPS

Class A - B19	Born after January 1, 1990	11-a-side
Class B - B16	Born after January 1, 1993	11-a-side
Class C - B14	Born after January 1, 1995	11-a-side
Class D - B13	Born after January 1, 1997	7-a-side
Class E - B11	Born after January 1, 1999	7-a-side
GIRLS Class F - Open Age Women		11-a-side
Class G - G16	Girls born after January 1, 1993	7-a-side
Class H - G14	Girls born after January 1, 1995	7-a-side

TOURNAMENT:

In Round 1, teams are divided into leagues of 4 teams. Winners Enter the A Finals, and the other 3 teams play friendly matches. Team Entry Fee and Team Registration is included in Action Youth tours.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Action Youth groups all stay in apartments or in good-class hotels, with 3 meals per day. All meals are served at your accommodation option, except the apartments, where meals are served in local restaurants.

ATTRACTIONS:

The City of Valencia offers excellent leisure and cultural options amidst a wonderful climate. The Prince Felipe Science Museum & L'Oceanografic Park - a real-life underwater city – are highlights.

SPECIAL DISPENSATION:

Teams from USA and England, who use January 1st as the cut-off date for age-groups, may use players born after Aug 1st of preceding year.

